STATISTICAL REGISTER, 1859.

REGISTRAR GENERAL'S REPORT

TO THE HONORABLE CHARLES COWPER, ESQUIRE,

COLONIAL SECRETARY,

&c., &c., &c.

Registrar General's Office,
Sydney, 31 August, 1860.

Sir,

For the information of the general public, who are not very well disposed to wade through the mass of Tabular Statements of which the Statistical Register is composed, it seems to be considered desirable that the compiler should enter upon a sort of analysis of the returns, point out the more striking features, and shew, with the aid of as few figures as possible, the comparative progress of the year past with others that have gone before it,—in fact, that the Government Statist should do that which is more properly the business of individual inquirers, and of the people themselves.

2. I regret that with every effort on my part to expedite the completion of the work at a much earlier period of the year, it has been found impossible to proceed with the printing, and, in some few instances, even up to this time, to get in some of the returns necessary to complete the Tables.

Great improvement upon the last year, however, is noticeable in the latter respect; and I have little doubt that, with unremitting perseverance, greater regularity may be obtained, although, until special means are afforded by the Legislature for the collection of the Statistics, we can never hope to attain such perfection as has been arrived at in the sister Colony of Victoria with regard both to punctuality and reliability.

3. The returns would seem naturally to resolve themselves under four distinct heads, which relate to the Political, Social, Industrial, and Financial Financial condition of the Country, and I have endeavored to arrange the Tables to coincide with these divisions.

Taxes, Duties, &c.

The Tables of Fees, Taxes, Duties, &c., which precede the Nominal Return of the Civil Establishments need only this passing comment,—that in one or two minor instances only is there any alteration in the rates of the previous year; the General Tariff remains in all respects the same as it was in 1858.

POLITICAL.

Eletoral Returns.

4. The only novel feature in the Returns which have reference to political affairs is the introduction of a Table shewing the Number of Electors, Resident and Non-Resident, under the Electoral Law of 1858, and the numbers who exercised the franchise.

The Returns are imperfect;—the Returning Officers, in some cases, had retained no copies of the Electoral Lists, nor had they kept any record of the numbers who had voted. The Balloting Papers are kept under seal by the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, and it has been found impossible to supply the deficiencies through any official channel.

It will be seen that, exclusive of the Gold Fields, the names of 69,776 persons have been placed on the Electoral Lists. This number forms 21·47 per cent., or over one-fifth, of the estimated total population of the Colony at the middle of the year.

Thirteen Districts* were uncontested, numbering 11,776 registered electors.

From official sources it appears that 27,448 persons recorded their votes, to which number, from unofficial sources, may be added 2,700, together 30,148. It thus appears, that out of 58,000 registered voters in the districts where the seats were contested, 30,148, or 52·00 per cent., exercised the privilege of the franchise.

The Returns from the Gold Fields are excluded, as being incomplete; but it appears by the Return from the Gold Fields North, that whereas there were not less than 2,400 persons who, by the possession of Miners' Rights, or Business Licenses, were qualified to vote, there were only 222 who availed themselves of the privilege.

It may be presumed that the greater number of those entitled to vote by virtue of a Miner's Right, or Business License, were entitled to vote, and did vote, by virtue of the residentiary suffrage for the Electoral District in which the Gold Field was situated.

Municipalities.

5. Amongst the Statistical Returns will be found a Table of Municipalities brought into existence under the Act of 1858 (22 Vict., No 13.)

It seems that Municipal Institutions were established in 13† districts during the year 1859. Of these institutions ten only seem to have arrived at a stage of maturity, so advanced as to have completed the valuation of the rateable property in their districts.

The

* Carcoar, The Gwydir, The Hawkesbury, The Lachlan, West Macquarie, West Maitland, The Murray, The Murrumbidgee, The Nepean, Northumberland, Queanbeyan, Wollombi, and Yass Plains.

† Grafton, Waverley, Newcastle, Albury, Goulburn, Redfern, Shellharbor, The Glebe, Kiama, Central Illawarra, Shoalhaven, Wollongong, Randwick.

The estimated value upon which the rates have been struck in the districts named is £244,705, and the rates vary from 6d. to 1s. in the pound, two only being under 1s., viz.,—Goulburn 6d., and Shellharbor 10d. £244,705.

The Return of Electors who voted at the election of officers is too incomplete, and the operation of the law too recent, to enable us to draw any just inference as to the appreciation in which this first attempt at introducing local self-government is held by the people generally. Further experience is necessary to afford us the data upon which we may judge of the local interest exhibited in the working of these institutions.

SOCIAL.

6. The Population Tables for 1859 afford less satisfactory indications of progress than those of former years. Population.

This is owing to two causes, namely, the separation of the Colony of Queensland, and the falling off in Immigration. From the former cause we have to write off an estimated population of 23,450, whilst the net immigration, after deducting the departures from the Colony, amounted only to 9,187 persons.

So that the estimated total population on the 31st December 1859, inclusive of the natural increase of the population by excess of Births over Deaths (8,773), was 336,572 against 342,062 at the end of the previous year, or a decrease of 5,490 persons.

7. The number of Immigrants brought out at the public expense, and at their own expense, was as follows, viz. :— Immigration.

	1858.	1859.	Decrease.
At the public expense ...	6,916	5,114	1,802
At private expense (exclusive of Chinese)	17,823	7,360	10,463
Totals ...	24,739	12,474	12,265

The total outlay for Immigation purposes was less than in any year since 1849. Compared with the year 1858 the expenditure of 1859 shews a decrease of £8,854, viz. :—1858, £90,459 ; 1859, £81,605.

8. The Return of Educational Establishments shews an increase in the number of Schools in the Colony of no less than 86. Education. Schools.

The increase appears to be distributed as follows, viz. :—

On 31st December, 1858		653
	Increase.
Denominational ...	6
National...	25
Private Schools	55
	—	86
On 31st December, 1859		739

It is not improbable that the increase in the number of Private Schools is attributable to short Returns in the previous year.

9.

Scholars.

9. Whilst an increase is observable in the number of Schools, as has just been shewn, a slight decrease appears in the total number of Scholars. In 1858, the number was 33,236; in 1859, 32,840; decrease, 396.

This is to be accounted for by the omission from the Returns for 1859 of the Schools in the Colony of Queensland.

The Denominational Schools shew a decrease of 2,492 Scholars, viz.:—1858, 16,082; 1859, 13,590; whilst the National Schools exhibit an increase of 633, viz.:—1858, 7,814; 1859, 8,447.

The Private Schools also shew an increase of 1,427 scholars, viz.:—1858, 8,571; 1859, 9,998.

Expenditure.

10. The Government Expenditure towards the support of the Denominational Schools was £19,964 7s., or at the rate of £1 9s. 4d. per head; and towards the National Schools, £20,868 5s. 5d., or at the rate of £2 9s. 4d. per head. Whilst the amount of Voluntary Contributions towards the former was £12,585 3s. 3d., or 18s. 6d. per head; and towards the latter, £9,587 6s. 1d., or 22s. 9d. per head.*

Sunday Schools.

11. An attempt has been made to obtain accurate Returns of Sunday Schools, and with greater success than on the last occasion, although the absence of information from many sources where it was sought for has to be noticed with regret. The Return shews an aggregate number of 313 Sunday Schools, and of 16,590 children who attend them, viz.:—

	Schools.	Scholars.
Church of England	124	6,073
Roman Catholic	65	3,566
Presbyterian	37	1,363
Wesleyan	65	4,107
Primitive Methodist	12	592
Independent	7	546
Baptist	2	300
Unitarian	1	43
	313	16,590

The boys number 7,870; the girls 8,720.

It is to be hoped that, for the sake of the little trouble it may occasion, ministers of religion will not withhold the information necessary to enable the Government Statist to compile accurate Returns with regard to this most interesting subject of inquiry.

Crime.

12. The Criminal Returns are prepared in a more comprehensive form than they have hitherto been. They embrace not only the commitments for trial and convictions in the Supreme and District Courts, but they include Returns of persons taken into custody and summarily dealt with at the several Courts of Petty Sessions throughout the Colony.

The

* In last year's report, an error occurred in the printing; the amount of Voluntary Contributions per head was stated to be about 4s., under the Denominational; and about 6s. under the National. The figures should have been 14s. and 16s.

The commitments for trial in the Supreme and Circuit Courts shew a decrease on the Returns of the previous year,* viz. :— Supreme Court. Commitments.

	1858.	1859.
Felonies	179	156
Misdemeanors	48	48
Capital Offences	29	20
	256	224

a decrease of 32.

The Convictions were as follows, viz. :— Convictions.

	1858.	1859.
Felonies	95	105
Misdemeanors	29	25
Capital Offences	9	10
	133	140

By the foregoing statement, it appears that out of 256 commitments in 1858, 133, or 52·00 per cent., were convicted, and 48·00 per cent. discharged; whilst in 1859, out of 224 commitments 140, or 62·50 per cent., were convicted, and 37·50 per cent. discharged.

13. In the Courts of Quarter Sessions the commitments for trial shew a considerable increase upon the Return of the previous year, resulting no doubt from the extended operation of the Law through the instrumentality of the District Courts Act of 1858, viz. :— Quarter Sessions. Commitments.

	1858.	1859.
Felonies	382	441
Misdemeanors	111	108
	493	549

an increase of 56.

The convictions also bear a corresponding increase, viz. :— Convictions.

	1858.	1859.
Felonies	181	221
Misdemeanors	82	55
	263	276

In the District Courts it thus appears that 54 per cent. of the committals in 1858 were prosecuted to conviction, and 46 per cent. discharged; whilst in 1859, 50 per cent. were convicted, and 50 per cent. discharged.

14. The Return of persons taken into custody and summarily dealt with is, as I have said, a new feature in the Criminal Returns of the Colony. It is to be regretted that they have not been made the subject of statistical inquiry from an earlier period, and I have to notice with regret the imperfect state in which some of the Returns have come in. Summary jurisdiction.

Incomplete, however, as they are, they throw much light upon the summary treatment of offences before the Justices in Petty Sessions.

The

* Exclusive of Brisbane.

The first thing that must strike any one in glancing over the Return, is the immense extent of summary jurisdiction compared to that exercised by the Judge and Jury. The former seized upon no less than 18,018 persons during the year, the latter on only 773; that is in the proportion of 55·44 to 2·38 in every 1,000 of the estimated population; or, in other words, the summary jurisdiction of the Police and Courts of Petty Sessions was extended over more than twenty-three times as many persons as the jurisdiction of the Judge and Jury.

It must be borne in mind, too, that the Returns do not embrace "summons cases," such as have regard to disputes under the Masters and Servants Act, &c. They are confined to persons actually taken into custody.

15. The Returns are classified under three heads—"Offences "against the person," "Offences against property," and "Drunkenness."

Of offences against the person.

It seems that under the first class of offences 5,662 persons were taken into custody. Out of this number 3,709, or 65·50 per cent., were convicted; 159, or 2·81 per cent., were committed for trial; and 1,794, or 31·69 per cent., were discharged.

Of offences against property.

Under the second class of offences 2,937 persons were taken into custody. Out of these 1,233, or 42·00 per cent., were convicted; 602, or 20·50 per cent., were committed for trial; and 1,102, or 37·50 per cent., were discharged.

Drunkenness.

It seems that no fewer than 9,419 persons were taken into custody by the police for drunkenness. Of this number 7,815, or 83·00 per cent., were convicted; and 1,582, or 17·00 per cent., were discharged.

16. The Criminal Statistics of this Colony have never been made the subject of proper investigation. Laws upon laws modifying, extending, and altering the degree of summary jurisdiction have been passed, but it is probable that no one ever imagined, or would have credited the assertion, that one in every eighteen of the total population, including all ages,—men, women, and children,—fell under penal restraint in the year of grace 1859.*

Comparing the convictions with the committals in the higher courts and in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction, we arrive at the following results, viz. :—

Tribunals.	Commitments.	Convictions.
Supreme Courts	224	140
Quarter Sessions	549	276
Total...	773	416

	Taken into Custody.	Convicted or Committed for Trial.
Petty Sessions (exclusive of drunkards)	8,599	5,703

In

* Making allowance for incorrigible offenders who may have been taken into custody two or three or more times in the course of the year, it is probable that, had the Returns been perfect, they would have shewn 1 in 15 or 16.

In the Judge and Jury Courts the convictions are 54·00 per cent. of the committals; and in the Courts of Summary Jurisdiction they are 66·00 per cent. of the persons taken into custody.

17. This outline of our national criminality is not out of place in a Report of this kind, and I do not know that I travel beyond the limits of my duty in giving to the results of my inquiries such prominent notice.

In England and Wales the Criminal Statistics shew that one person out of every forty-five falls under penal restraint; in New South Wales, one in eighteen, or nearly three times that number, are laid hold of, shut up in a cell, imprisoned or fined, whilst not less than 2·70 per cent. of the population come under police law under the imputation of that prolific parent of crime, drunkenness.

It has been found impossible on the present occasion to obtain information as to the state of education amongst the persons summarily dealt with, but I have reason to hope that on the next occasion this defect will be remedied and the Returns furnished complete in all respects.

INDUSTRIAL.

18. There is little to notice in the Returns of Manufactures. This branch of industry seems to have made but little progress during the year under review. Manufactures, Mines, &c.

Mining operations, however, were more active. The production of coal was 308,213 tons; that of the previous year was 216,397 tons; so that the increase embraced not less than 91,816 tons.

The rapid development of this important branch of industry is a very satisfactory feature in the Returns.

It will be seen by the decennial Table that whilst the total production of coal during the five years, 1850 to 1854 inclusive, was 419,681 tons, the five years, 1855 to 1859, shew a production of no less than 1,062,080 tons, or nearly treble that of the first quinquennial period.

19. The produce of our Gold Fields deserves passing notice. The quantities received into the Mint and shipped through the Customs without passing through the Mint, make up together as near as can be ascertained the annual production of our mines, and the statistics from these sources exhibit a considerable increase in the yield during the last year compared with either of the four previous years, as will appear by the following Table taken from the Report of the Deputy Master of the Royal Mint, viz. :— Gold.

Agriculture and Vineyards

20. It has been my endeavor to collect the Agricultural Statistics in an improved form, and to present them with a greater degree of authenticity. To some extent my efforts have met with success, but the defects in many of the Returns defeat the general accuracy and reliability of the whole.

It is much to be regretted that information of so much importance (in evidence of our material progress, and of the extent to which the application of industry to the soil is carried and found to be remunerative) should be left to the casual and unchecked collection of the constabulary. Until some improved machinery is provided we can never hope to arrive at such a degree of accuracy as is necessary to impart real value to statistics of production.

It would be a mere waste of time to enter upon an analysis of figures in which no one believes, and for the accuracy of which I can only say this much, that they, perhaps, bear a nearer proximity to the truth than the Returns of previous years.

Occupants and holdings.

21. It will be noticed that columns are provided for the number of occupants of land—for the total extent of their holdings—and for the total extent of land uncultivated as well as cultivated. The figures, taking them for what they are worth, shew a total of 15,715 occupants, and a total extent of holding—including land granted, sold, and leased—amounting to 27,663,365 acres. Of this quantity 27,438,360 acres are said to be uncultivated, and 247,542 acres only in crop.

If we add the cultivated and uncultivated acreage together we arrive at an excess of 22,537 acres over the total extent of holdings. This has been made the subject of much correspondence with the districts in which the discrepancies have been noticed, and it has been variously accounted for, in some districts by double cropping, in others the total extent of holding is not stated, and could not be ascertained,—for such reasons the Return is not so satisfactory as could be desired.

It may be noticed in passing that the extent of land under crop in the year ending 31st March, 1860, was in excess of the previous year by 24,247 acres, viz. :—

1858-9	223,295 acres.
1859-60.....	247,542 „

In the face of the loss sustained by the separation of the Queensland Colony, this may be looked upon as a satisfactory feature in the Returns.

Sorghum.

I may further notice the extent of land sown with the Sorghum and Imphee which seems to embrace 1,151 acres—a large area for this species of green food to have spread over in the course of little more than three years, and a striking evidence of the value of the crop for the feeding of cattle. The produce (16,298 cwt.) given in the Return represents grain, not green food.

Live Stock.

22. The Live Stock Returns are open to similar strictures with those passed upon the Returns of Agriculture. With the view to save trouble, trouble, and by this means to ensure greater attention to the collection, I had the Live Stock and Agricultural Statistics taken at the same period.

Formerly the Returns of Live Stock were supposed to be made up on the 1st of January in each year, and the Agricultural Statistics on the 31st March.

On the present occasion the 31st of March was the day fixed for the collection of both Returns.

With regard to horses, horned cattle, and pigs, there seems to be an increase upon the numbers of the previous year, but with regard to sheep the loss of the splendid pastoral districts of Queensland tells with great effect.

The following figures represent the totals of each kind of Stock on the 1st January, 1859, and the 31st March, 1860, viz. :—

	1859.	1860.	Increase.
Horses ...	200,713 ...	214,684 ...	13,971
Cattle ...	2,110,604 ...	2,190,976 ...	80,372
Pigs ...	92,843 ...	119,701 ...	26,858
			Decrease.
Sheep ...	7,581,762 ...	5,162,671 ...	2,419,091

Here we see a deficit of nearly two millions and a half of Sheep. The increase of the flocks from the September lambing of 1859 is included in the numbers given for 1860, which would not have been the case had the Returns been collected, as formerly, on the 1st January instead of on the 31st March. The deficiency is thus made to appear the more glaring.

There is reason to believe that much greater care was taken in collecting the Returns for the past year than hitherto, and it is to be hoped that persons from whom information is sought will afford the fullest satisfaction to the inquiries of the Collectors, in order that the Statistics of Live Stock and Agriculture may be relieved from the reproach of inaccuracy which has been charged, and not without reason, against them.

23. The fluctuations of commerce, as expressed in the Customs Returns, will be found set forth in the summary Table below :— Imports and Exports.

Imports Seaward.

It appears by the above Table that shipments from the United Kingdom manifest a decrease in value of £134,209 on the shipments of the previous year, whilst the Imports from British Colonies and Foreign States shew an increase respectively of £320,612 and £351,284, together £671,896. The increase in the Imports seaward therefore shews a net value of £537,687.

But to arrive at an accurate idea of our commercial operations, we must inquire what were the importations from Victoria and South Australia.

Overland.

24. The value of Imports viâ Albury (exclusive of Live Stock) is stated at £161,426, that is a decrease of £135,723 upon the GENERAL Imports of 1858, to which must be added a decrease of £39,232 in the value of Live Stock, together £174,955, as shewn by the following Table :—

The Customs Returns at the Port of Goolwa are confined to quantities, and do not give the values of the articles imported from South Australia viâ the River Murray. The Return therefore is of no use in determining the actual net money value of our importations for the year, and must be omitted from the calculation.

Live Stock.

The Import of Live Stock overland was very small, the entire quantity, of which I have been enabled to get Returns, was only 2,292 cattle and 2,814 sheep, for which we may assume an estimated value of £13,570.*

Taking, therefore, the Imports at the amounts stated, viz. :—

Seaward	£6,597,053
Viâ Albury	161,426
Viâ Goolwa	Not stated.
Live Stock	13,570
We arrive at a total of	...£6,772,049

or at the rate of £19 7s. per head of the estimated population at the middle of the year,† exclusive of the imports from South Australia viâ the River Murray. The

* i.e., At the rate of £5 for the cattle and 15s. for the sheep.
† 350,000 including Queensland.

The average annual Imports for the five years, 1854 to 1858, were at the rate of £19 8s. per head.*

25. The Exports for the year "Seaward" shew a total increase in value of £581,772 over those of the previous year. Our trade with the United Kingdom and Foreign States exhibits an increase, respectively of £629,471 and £363,173, together £992,644; whilst our export trade with the British Colonies shews a decrease of £410,872. Exports.

The Exports viâ Albury, exclusive of Live Stock, were of the stated value of £48,939, a decrease of £130,154 upon the value of the Exports of the year before; whilst the Exports of Live Stock to Victoria and South Australia shew a decrease of £290,006 in value† on the Return for 1858. Live Stock.

The general Exports therefore stand thus, viz.:—

Seaward	£4,768,049
Viâ Albury	48,939
Viâ Goolwa	Not stated.
Live Stock	983,938
Total... ...	£5,800,926

or at the rate of £16 11s. 6d. per head of the estimated population. The estimated average annual rate per head for the five years, 1854 to 1858, was £12 7s., which shews an increase for the year 1859 over the average of the five preceding years of not less than £4 4s. 6d. per head.

26. Comparing the Imports and Exports for the years 1858 and 1859, we shall find the following general results, viz.:— Comparison with 1858.

Imports.

	Seaborne.	Overland.	Total.
1858—	£6,059,366	£349,951	£6,409,316
1859—	6,597,053	174,996	6,772,049

Exports.

1858—	£4,186,277	£1,453,037	£5,639,314
1859—	4,768,049	1,032,877	5,800,926

Total Results.

	1858.	1859.	General Increase.
Imports—	£6,409,316	£6,772,049	£362,733
Exports—	5,639,314	5,800,926	161,612
Excess of Imports	£770,002	£971,123

27. The Export Seaward of our staple commodity, which by the Customs Returns of 1858 exhibited a deficiency of nearly three and a half millions Wool.

* An error in the printing of my Report on the Statistics of 1858 may here be noticed, at page 21, conclusion of paragraph 48, the value of Imports and Exports are given in shillings and pence, instead of pounds and shillings.

† The cattle are estimated at £5 per head, or £1 lower than last year; the rates of horses, sheep, and pigs, are maintained as in the previous year.

millions of lbs. upon the shipments of the previous year, has again reached its former level.

The quantities shipped from the Colony during the three years 1857 to 1859 were as follows :—

1857..... 17,044,201 lbs.
1858..... 13,553,835 lbs.
1859..... 17,261,359 lbs.

The shipments of last year arrive within a fraction of the average annual shipments of the previous five years (1854 to 1858) namely, 17,289,272 lbs.

There are no returns of New South Wales Wool exported viâ Melbourne or Adelaide prior to those of 1858.

The export viâ Albury for 1858 and 1859 was,—

1858..... 157,290 lbs.
1859..... 114,576 lbs.

which brings up the total exports of which we have any account, for the two years, respectively, to 13,711,125 lbs., and 17,375,935 lbs.—together 31,087,060 lbs.

It is much to be regretted that no records are to be obtained of exports viâ the River Murray, consequently the shipments of Wool from New South Wales by way of Adelaide cannot be given.

Comparing the returns of sheep on the 1st January, 1858 and 1859, with the export of Wool, the clip of our flocks would seem to have averaged nearly 2 lbs. per sheep.

Land Sales.

28. The Land Sales shew a decrease upon the sales of the previous year, viz. :—

1858.....	£248,726	8	3
1859.....	£228,630	2	7
Decrease ...	£20,096	5	8

whether this is owing to the monetary depression or to the unsettled state of the land question is not for me to determine.

The total number of acres sold was as under, viz. :—

Country Lots.....	128,854 acres,	averaging	£1	4	2	per acre.
Special do	2,223 „	„	3	7	0	„
Suburban	2,889 „	„	6	8	6	„
Town.....	1,200 „	„	36	14	6	„

Purchases under the pre-emptive right embraced 19,923 acres, or nearly one-seventh the total quantity sold.

* The Returning Officer states that, having forwarded the Voting Papers, Rolls, &c., to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly he is not in a position to furnish the requisite information.

† The Returning Officer states "That the Collectors, as far as he can ascertain, did not insert the names of any Non-Resident electors in the Electoral Roll."

‡ Of this number 18 "Residence not known."

§ The Returning Officer states that the numbers given of each class for the Casino District are the nearest he can arrive at from his local knowledge, as the Electoral Rolls used at the Election were forwarded to the Clerk of the Assembly.

‖ Portion of the Police District of Wee Waa.

¶ Portion of the Police District of Warialda. The Returning Officer says "It is a difficult matter to separate the Town from the Country Electors, "particularly to distinguish the Warialda Country Electors from the Bingera Country Electors. The fact of so many Electors being in the Bingera "Town, arises from the fact of its being a Gold Field, and many are inserted on the Roll under the qualification of 'Miners Right.'"

Note.—The adopted mean Temperature is the mean of the Maximum, Minimum, 9 A.M. and 9 P.M., results.

The mean height of Barometer is the mean of the 9 A.M., 3 P.M. and 9 P.M., results.

The mean pressure of vapour is deduced from the readings of the wet and dry bulb Thermometers at 9 A.M., 3 P.M., and 9 P.M.

The resultant direction of the wind is obtained as follows:—

The direction and force are registered three times a day, the force being represented by numbers, according to the Observer's judgment, from 0 to 6; the resultant force and direction are then determined on the principle of the resolution of mechanical forces.

COINS.

The Coins in circulation are the Coins of Great Britain, and the Sovereigns and Half-Sovereigns coined at the Sydney Branch of the Royal Mint, all of which are current at their sterling value.

BRANCH ROYAL MINT, SYDNEY.

Importations of Gold Dust, or Gold Bullion, for Coinage, from 1,000 ozs. standard upwards, are subject to a charge of $\frac{3}{4}$ per cent, for converting the same into Coin.

Importations below that amount are coined at a charge of 1 per cent.

Gold Bullion in Bars, or Ingots, are issued, if required, at £3 17s. 10½d. the standard oz.

When payment for an Importation is required within two days of delivery, an additional charge of $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. is made.

A reduction of the above Mint Charges equivalent to $\frac{3}{8}$ per cent of the standard value of the importation was made in respect to Gold—the produce of any portion of the British Territory of Australasia not included in New South Wales—imported into the Mint on the 1st November, 1859, under the conditions prescribed in the Act, 20 Vict., No. 17.

Duty on Gold imported into the Mint, 2s. 3d. per oz., standard fineness, from 15 February, 1857.
